Bruſſels, May 27.

THe Prince of Parma is reſolved to go to Aeth and Mons the beginning of the next week, and in his return will viſit Charleroy. To morrow the Nations of this City are to meet, in order to the renewing the Impoſition upon Beer, &c. We have Letters from Lille of the 23 Inſtant which ſay, that Monſieur Pelletier, the Chief of the French Commiſſioners was returned thither from Courtray, ſo that the Conferences there are again at a ſtand. From Liege we have an Account, That on Thurſday laſt 200 Germans, by order of the Elector of Cologne, entred Viſet, a ſmall Town upon the Meuſe, between that City and Maeſtricht, and obliged all the Veſſels that paſt up the River to pay the Impoſition of the 60th Penny for the Merchandizes they were laden with, of which they of Liege having notice, reſolved immediately to diſlodge them, and on Friday Morning 8 or 9000 Men, Soldiers and Burghers marched thither with four or five pieces of Cannon, and having aſſaulted the Place, the Germans after a ſtout reſiſtance all the day, were forced to Capitulate towards the Evening, and had leave to march out with their Arms, Bag and Bagage. Two hours after, ſome thouſands of the Countrey Militia, who were drawn together to relieve the Place, arrived there, though too late, but we are expecting to hear that ſome Action has paſt between them and thoſe of Liege in their return home. They took at Viſet about half a ſcore Freemen of their City, who having in theſe differences, Declared themſelves for their Prince, were retired thither, and have carried them to Liege, where it's thought they will paſs their time very ill.

Hague, May 27. Here paſſes hardly any thing of Moment at preſent, but when the Prince of Orange returns, which he will now do very ſuddainly, and that the States of Holland meet, we may be able to give you an Account of ſeveral things that may be worth the knowing.

Paris, May 24. We do not yet hear what Reſolution the King has taken, upon the Advice preſented to him by the Biſhops, concerning the Convoking a National Counſel, or a general Aſſembly of the Clergy. This we know, that His Majeſty is much offended with the Biſhop of Arras, who refuſed to joyn therein with the others. In the mean time matters ſtand at Rome in the ſame poſture as formerly, the Cardinal d' Eſtrees, after the ſeveral Audiences he has had of the Pope, and Conferences with the Cardinals, not being able to induce the Pope to depart from his Pretenſions. The King of Sweden preſſes hard by his Miniſters here, that the French will withdraw their Garriſons out of the Dutchy of Deuxponts, that ſo he may take Poſſeſſion of it, as of Right belonging to him.

Falmouth, May 16. The 13th Inſtant arrived here the Unity of London, laden with Oyls from Galipoli, ſhe came about five weeks ſince from Cadiz, and the Maſter tells us, that putting into Gibraltar, he ſaw there the Golden Horſe of Argiers, mounted with 48 Guns, and that he was informed by the Engliſh Commanders, that one of His Majeſties Frigats had taken another Algerine of 24 Guns; and that as he was coming out of the Streights, he met an Engliſh Frigat, having with him an Algerine Prize; which it's ſuppoſed was the ſame he had an account of at Gibraltar, and that the Frigat was the Saphire, and the Prize the Roſe of Argiers.

Plymouth, May 17. Yeſterday ſailed from hence His Majeſties Ship the Guernſey, Captain Tennent Commander for Portſmouth. Here are now in Port the Foreſight, the Aſſurance, the Sweepſtakes, and the Mermaid, the latter being come in from Cruiſing to Victual here.

Windſor, May 17. An Humble Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty, by the Mayor and Aldermen of Lynne Regis, which follows,

WE Your Majeſties Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council, and other the chief Inhabitants of Your antient Burrough of Lynn-Regis in the County of Norfolk; in all Loyalty and Dutiful Reverence, do give Your Majeſty our Humble and Hearty Thanks for Your Royal Affection and Continuance to the Excellent Conſtitution of the Church of England, and conſtant care to defend it againſt the ill deſigns of Popery, and all other Oppoſitions whatſoever; for Your firm Reſolution, to maintain both the Juſt Rights of the Monarchy, and the Liberty and Property of Your People; particularly, for Your late Gracious Declaration, and thoſe Inſtances of Your Princely Goodneſs, and Condeſcentions contained therein, which we think ſufficient to allay the Fears, and remove the Miſunderſtandings of all well-meaning and reaſonable Men; and with Gratitude to Your Majeſty, we account our ſelves highly obliged to praiſe Almighty God for the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy from, and under Your Majeſties Government, exerciſed with great Juſtice, Wiſdom, and Clemency; Wherefore, as Religion and Allegiance engageus, we in a deep and grateful ſenſe of Your Princely Craee and Favour, do Beſeech the King of Kings, that he will Grant Your Majeſty, a long and proſperous Reign; and to our utmoſt we ſhall endeavour with our Lives and Fortunes, the preſervation of Your Royal Perſon, and the ſupport of Your Royal Authority.
